1. Ethiopia

Ethiopia inks peace deal with separatist group
Ethiopia said Monday it had signed a peace deal with the separatist Ogaden National Liberation Front (ONLF), formally ending more than three decades of insurgency in the eastern Somali regional state. Daily Nation

2. Ivory Coast

Ivory Coast's 'devil's milk' at centre of US-China trade war
Rubber tree growers in Ivory Coast are emerging as the latest casualty of the trade war between the United States and China. It is Africa's leading exporter of the valuable commodity, which was historically called "devil's milk" because of the brutal conflicts it fuelled. Aljazeera

3. Kenya

Sugar firms feud over cane poaching
Owners of two sugar mills on Tuesday accused each other of cane poaching before a National Assembly committee. West Kenya Sugar boss Jaswant Rai and his counterpart Sanjay Patel of Butali testified before the National Assembly Committee on Implementation separately. Daily Nation

CNN's Quest celebrates Kenya ahead of inaugural direct flight to US
Celebrated international journalist Richard Quest has shared a stunning review of Kenya’s capital city, Nairobi, describing it as ‘gorgeous, genteel and genteel’. Quest, who hosts CNN’s signature business show, is in the country to screen the launch of the much anticipated direct flight between Kenya and the United States. He will join passengers on the inaugural Kenya Airways flight from Nairobi to New York on October 28. Africa News
President Kenyatta to launch UHC pilot programme on December

President Uhuru Kenyatta will launch the Universal Health Coverage (UHC) pilot programme on December 1 to coincide with the World Aids Day. The UHC pilot will be rolled out in the four counties of Isiolo, Kisumu, Nyeri and Machakos before it is finally scaled up to cover the rest of the country. Capital News

4. South Africa

Ramaphosa wants to leave legacy of economic emancipation, says union head

The Federation of Unions of South Africa (Fedusa) says President Cyril Ramaphosa is someone who wants to leave a lasting legacy of economic freedom, its general secretary Dennis George told Fin24. Fin24

5. Uganda

ICC trial of LRA leader only part of search for justice in Uganda

A former senior commander of a Ugandan rebel group is standing trial at the International Criminal Court (ICC). Dominic Ongwen, a leader of the Lord’s Resistance Army, is facing 70 charges, including war crimes and murder. The rebel group he led is linked to the deaths of 100,000 people and the abduction of 20,000 children during a 20-year civil war. Aljazeera

6. Zimbabwe

Defiant Chamisa says Mnangagwa needs legitimacy to revive Zimbabwe's economy

Zimbabwe’s opposition leader, Nelson Chamisa has called for the establishment of a national transitional authority, saying it is the only way to solve the legitimacy question of President Emmerson Mnangagwa’s government. Chamisa, who was addressing a press conference on Tuesday, said an illegitimate government cannot resolve the prevailing economic crisis, and the long standing isolation of the country from the international community. Chamisa and the Movement for Democratic Change Alliance have consistently refused to acknowledge the triumph of the ruling ZANU-PF party at the July 30 presidential elections. Africa News